Reuben Thomas shot John Garrett at Panola, Madison county, with a Winchester rifle. The shot took effect in the breast and went clear through. The trouble arose over a settlement.

E. S. Marshall A. D. James has transferred Field Deputy W. T. Short from East Bernstadt to Mt. Vernon. D. A. Wallace, the field deputy stationed at Mt. Vernon, was discharged from the service for getting into trouble with Conductor Delph at Corbin, when he was held in $500 bond.

POLITICAL POINTS.

S. B. Dishman takes C. W. Metcalfe's place as Committeeman for the 11th district.

J. D. Sayres nominated for governor by the Texas democrats has been in Congress 14 years.

Collector Comigore, of Covington, revoked the commissions of 19 store keepers avowedly in retaliation for the wholesale discharge of republican State officials.

Legislative district conventions will be held in Louisville Aug. 27 to select delegates to a convention to be held at Louisville on the 29th to nominate a candidate for Congress.

J. N. Kehoe led in the primaries in the 9th district Saturday, with Walter Sharp a strong second. It takes 54 to nominate and Kehoe has 47. The convention will be held at Cynthiana Wednesday.

The committee composing the 27th judicial district met at this place last Saturday and ordered a primary to be held September 15th, to nominate a republican candidate for circuit judge in this district.—London Kentuckian.

It is positively stated that the Courier-Journal and Times will hereafter support all the Democratic nominees, including Bryan on a free silver platform in 1900. This information comes from the very highest authority, one of the active managers of the paper and one who is supposed to control its politics.—Elizabethtown News.

CHURCH CHATTER.

Revs. Joseph Severance and Ed Hubbard are conducting a meeting at Rowland.

Rev. W. S. Grinstead will preach his last sermon for the conference year at McKinney next Sunday afternoon.

The First Presbyterian church at Lebanon has called as their pastor the Rev. L. C. Noel, of Taylor, Texas. The church has been without a pastor for several months.

The Cynthiana Democrat says that Elder J. T. Sharrard now has charge of two churches, Athens and Old Union, in Fayette county. The Rev. W. R. Lloyd, of Richmond, is holding a meeting at the former with 50 additions to last accounts.

Those who have heard these earnest young men, Revs. C. H. Neal and W. G. Cram, preach at the Methodist church speak in highest praise of the manner in which they expound the gospel and say that they are destined to write their names high in church annals. The meeting will likely last till next Sunday night.

DANVILLE.

John B. Embry bought of Gentry Bros. about 175 cattle at nearly 5c.

Rev. F. W. Allen, of Stanford, preached Sunday morning at the Christian church.

Messrs. Will and Tom Baughman have bought the farm of the late Mrs. Samuel Baughman.

Gov. J. Proctor Knott has a very interesting relic, an umbrella handle, formerly owned by James K. Polk, whose name is carved on the end. It is now exhibited in McDowell's window.

The Danville base ball team suffered defeat at Richmond Thursday and Friday in two very interesting and close games. In the first the score was 8 to 7, the second 5 to 5. The home team was very unfortunate in having two of its players injured. Nicholasville plays in Danville this week.

Mr. Sam Cotton, son of Mr. Thomas Cotton, living near Danville, was killed Saturday afternoon in a very horrible manner. He was breaking two young horses by driving them to a drag. It is supposed that the team became frightened, ran away and dragged him some distance. He was badly mangled and lived about three hours, but never regained consciousness. The deceased was unmarried and about 40 years of age.

Messrs. Arch and Alfred and Miss Mary Robertson left Sunday night for New York. Messrs. John and George McRoberts, Charlie Cecil, Robt. Salter, Horace Bowman, Will Dunn attended the governor's ball at Crab Orchard Springs. Len G. Edelen, of Burgin, was in Danville Saturday looking younger than he did 10 years ago. Soon after filing applications, applicants will be notified of the exact date of examination.

W. H. MILLER, Secy.

There seems to be a bad streak in the Collins girls of Midway. May, it will be remembered, was asphyxiated in a room in Boston with the famous atheist, Sam Putman, whose disciple she was, and now a younger sister, Julia, after disgracing herself in a saloon at Midway in company with a fast married woman, has run off with her and the worst fears about her are doubtless realized.

The managers of the Lexington Lunatic Asylum contracted for 2,600 tons of coal at $1.60.

THE SECOND REGIMENT.

CAMP THOMAS, Aug. 3. The first battalion, composed of Companies A, E, H, and L, and commanded by Major E. L. Helburn, is now encamped on the famous Snodgrass Hills and about half a mile from the tower. We came over under "heavy marching orders" Monday morning for the purpose of target shooting, but I would be quite premature if I should say our "target practice" was satisfactory, as we have at this writing done no practicing at all. We are about two miles from the regular camp and only brought our shelter tents, ponchos, blankets, haversacks, canteen, "dishes," guns and side arms with us. The scenery here is quite picturesque—you can see 10 miles in some places and the beautiful Snodgrass Hill and tower lay right in front of us, while over on the other hand it is quite different as you can see nothing but tents and trees and can't see a quarter of a mile away.

This is an awful peach country and there are three orchards in half mile of here. Here we are all one. The commissioned officers and privates mess together, joke each other and are having a good old time all around. When it rains it pours in Georgia and a rainy spell generally lasts from one to two weeks. It has now rained every day for the past 10 days and it looks like we will have another downpour today.

The chances are that we will come home without firing a gun at the enemy. We may get to go to some island and guard for awhile, but I rather think we will have nine chances out of 10 of being mustered out of service in side of two months.

The recruits have at last been equipped or partly so and now "all coons look alike." There has been some pretty strong talk of the Second regiment moving their camp to some other spot, but "Peace" will probably knock that in the head.

One of the most interesting proceedings of the day is guard mount. Every incoming guard has on his blouse buttoned, guns and bayonets glistening and those wishing to be orderly have their shoes blacked and wear white gloves. The band makes the air resound with patriotic airs. All guns are carefully inspected by the officer of the day and guards are formed into two platoons which march around in circle and are then divided into three reliefs. A relief is on two hours and off four.

The writer is now a representative for the Chattanooga Times in the Second Regiment and with the great amount of mail he receives is writing about three-fourths of his time. Will quit for the present.

CLARENCE COLEMAN.

MIDDLEBURG.

Cloyd & Hicks bought 45 good calves in Adair and Russell. Emmett McCormick shipped a car-load of sheep to Cincinnati Thursday.

Rev. R. B. Mahony, of Stanford, preached two interesting discourses here. Bro. Mahony was pastor of the church here some 15 years ago and everybody was glad to see him.

Tom Spears, who is authority as a weather prophet as well as a judge of good "chawin'" tobacco, said if it rained on the 25th day of July it would rain 40 days in succession. A good shower fell that day and his prophecy is holding good.

The South Kentucky Association will convene at the Baptist church here on the 16th. Rev. Danklin will preach at the Baptist church on the 2nd Saturday and Sunday following, when a full attendance of the membership is requested. The meeting at the Christian church near Yosemite, conducted by Revs. Brewer and Montgomery, was to have closed Sunday.

Rev. Shiner has probably skipped the county. He has not been seen for some days and it is reported that he went to Tennessee. The fine that was assessed against him at his late trial at Liberty was not paid at last accounts, besides $30 due Miss Lucy Short. Messrs. Leslie and D. W. Carman are sureties for the rent and as they are responsible gentlemen they will have to pony up.

Limoges has just held its human hair market, women from all the country round coming there to sell their braids. The price is now, on the average, $5 a pound; 20 years ago it was $10. When a bargain has been struck the woman is taken to the nearest inn and shorn. At the last market $12,000 worth of hair was bought.

One fourth of the people on the earth die before the age of 6, one half before the age of 16 and one person in each 100 born lives to the age of 65.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR FLUX.

Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flux, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists."

CLARENCE E. WOODS.

Of Richmond, who has just been elected grand recorder of the Sigma Nu Society for the fourth time and made the editor of its organ, is one of the brightest of men and readiest of writers. In addition to his other duties he is associate editor of the Richmond Climax and the scintillations of his pen have given that excellent paper much of its enviable reputation. In addition to his other gifts, Mr. Woods is one of the most companionable of men and the truest of friends, who would go even further than the length of his cable tow to oblige or assist one. He is still in the summer of a robust life and with a lovely wife and pretty child enjoys the good things of earth, which holds such grand probabilities for him.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Thomas Martin and Miss Sarah Saylor were united in marriage at Albert Saylor's Friday.

James Collier, aged 21, and Miss Daisy Anderson, 17, were married at J. L. Anderson's yesterday.

A Hardin county squire got seven kisses from the blushing bride for tying her to the man of her choice.

Claude Clark, a brakeman, had both legs cut off by a caboose running over him at Barboursville. He died shortly afterwards.

John Wallace, a widower of 60, and Mrs. Sallie Howard, aged 68, and the mother of nine living children, were married at Anderson, Ill.

William Harrison, a popular railroad man of Somerset, and Miss Lucy, the pretty daughter of Ward Tate, of Pulaski, were married last week.

Corporal St. James, Thirty-fifth Michigan Infantry, was married, and killed by his brother-in-law a little while afterwards because of aspersions on his wife's character.

At St. Louis, Mrs. Sallie Winston is suing for divorce because her husband eats onions, drinks whisky and smokes mean cigars. She should secure separation by all means.

When Mrs. Emma Arnold, of St. Louis, was introduced to Lt. Hobson at New York, she asked him to kiss her and he gave her a resounding smack on her saucy lips.

It has just leaked out that Prof. J. W. Carnahan of the Sue Bennett Institute, of London, and Miss Mollie, daughter of J. T. Williams, of the same town, were married in June.

The Somerset Paragon says that Rufe Ashurst, a widower, and Mrs. Nellie Drummond Owens were married a few days ago. Mrs. Owens used to live in Stanford with Mr. and Mrs. Will Foster.

Samuel Pratt, of Pulaski, married Miss Josephine Merrix 40 years ago. They lived together 15 years and were divorced. Both married again and both were divorced. For the third time both married and strange to say, both were subsequently divorced. Last week they met and decided to try it together again and securing a license were soon reunited, let us hope this time for aye.

It is admitted in London that extreme diplomatic tension exists between Great Britain and Russia. It is hoped that the former stand taken by the Marquis of Salisbury will check Russian aggressiveness, but Great Britain will be ready to mobilize her fleet on short notice.

MARK HARDIN, STANFORD.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - AUG. 9, 1898

W. P. WALTON.

Democratic Nominee For Congress.
HON. G. G. GILBERT,
Of Shelby County.

A GREAT many of our people will remember Stephen A. Douglas, Jr., the fellow who was as broad as he was long, and made a speech for the republican ticket in 1896 from the gallows stand erected in the court-house yard for the Negro Anthony Alcorn. He then made an explanation why he with a father so illustrious in democratic councils, should have espoused the cause of republicanism. He inherits considerable of his father's talents and of course made a good speech from his standpoint. But the fat and funny looking fellow has seen the error of his way and acknowledged that his father knew more than he does. At a meeting of the Cook county, Ill., democracy the other day he formally and officially joined the ranks and pledged to devote the rest of his days to trying to undo the evil he had done. This is the way he states the case: "Of late years the tendency of the republican party has been to fasten this government under the control of trusts and monopolies. The tendency of the democratic party has been to curtail the power of money and place the government in the hands of the mass of the people. I not only believe that this should be so, but I also firmly believe that the only thing that can prevent this country from being wealth-ridden on the one hand or mob-ridden on the other is that the government shall be in the hands of the plain people. I have no desire for political office, was not a candidate for any State or Federal place, and can not be called a sorehead. I leave the republican party simply because I don't believe in its principles."

Ordinarily a turncoat is about as much entitled to consideration as a sheep killing dog, but there are extenuating circumstances in Douglas' favor and we accept him as a wanderer returned.

IN an interview with the Cincinnati Enquirer Hon. Champ Clark, of Missouri, one of the most picturesque and popular members of Congress, says he is sure that the opposition to the republican party, that is the democrats, silver men and populists, will control the next House of Representatives. It will require a change in only 27 districts and he figures on them with much reason and certainty. A change in only 50 districts would make the next House democratic and that too he thinks probable. The people are dissatisfied with the republican party and in New England especially he expects to see many changes. By the way, Mr. Clark is a Kentuckian by birth and marriage. He was born in Anderson county 48 years ago and married a Miss Bennett, a cousin of Gov. James B. McCreary. John D. White, who is now teaching Brer Boreling Spanish, taught Mr. Clark Latin at the University at Lexington, both being students there. Mr. Clark thinks that Bryan will be renominated in 1900 with a whirl and be elected.

A MOST remarkable man is Judge Charles E. Kincaid, of the Cincinnati Enquirer, who is a grandson of the noted lawyer of this county, the late John Kincaid, whose praises Col. T. P. Hill delights so much to sing. We were with him awhile on his rounds in Cincinnati the other night, during which time he interviewed a number of prominent men, including several wealthy Japanese merchants, who had just come over and whose English was very poor. He didn't take a note during the whole time on paper, but the next morning's Enquirer contained a column or so from him, in which in many instances the identical words of the interviewed were used. There are many people who can give an outline of a conversation, but the judge is the only one we have ever seen, who can give it almost verbatim. His many friends in this section of his birth will be glad to know that he is doing well and an almost indispensable on the great journal.

CHATTANOOGA democrats are rejoicing over the result of their city election. For the first time since the war every ward gave a democratic majority and the entire ticket was elected by majorities ranging from 660 to 1,389. At Nashville and all over the State the democrats won by increased majorities. With the democratic majority in Alabama almost up in the hundred thousands, it begins to look like things are going our way again.

JUDGE VINCENT BOREING, being the only announced republican for Congress in the 11th by the 5th, the day named by the committee, he was made the nominee of his party at London on that day. The nomination in that rockribbed district is equivalent to election, unless John D. White shall spring a surprise on the boys, as he will be a candidate at the November election and is mighty strong in places.

THOUGH no formal acceptance has been made by Spain to this government's terms for peace, at this writing it is generally understood that the reply which is soon to be forthcoming is a full acceptance of the conditions imposed. The impression at Washington is that the war is over and peace will be declared in a few days and preparations to that end are being made. Even after the cessation of hostilities a long time will be required to perform the peace terms and it is calculated that Spain will take three or four months to complete the evacuation of Port Rico and Cuba. This will obviate the necessity of sending American troops to Havana till better weather conditions prevail and be entirely satisfactory to the administration. While many of the soldiers may come home, it is said that 100,000 or more will be necessary for garrison duty for the present, if indeed the army is not permanently kept at that figure.

SECRETARY ALGER is coming in for much adverse criticism for his contemptible action in making public some correspondence between him and Roosevelt, in which he administers a reprimand to the colonel of the rough riders. That Roosevelt was a little fresh in saying his men are as good as regulars and three times as good as other troops, but it was due possible to a pardonable pride of them; and if he needed the reprimand, it needn't have been paraded for political purposes and to placate Platt, who sees in him a formidable opponent for governor of New York.

If any fleet is to be sent against Spain or to reinforce Dewey, Sampson will command it. Both Schley and Watson are more competent to do so, but they had the misfortune, as McKinley evidently regards it, to have been born this side of Mason and Dixon's line and their claims, no matter how great, do not count against a man who was lucky enough to be born on the other side.

GREY Gelding Davison wants Hon. John W. Yerkes to run for Congress and Mr. Yerkes wants Davison to run. What's the matter with throwing up wet or dry and quit the silly tickling business?

NOT SATISFACTORY.

SPAIN WANTS TO DICKER AND HAVE MORE MEN KILLED.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8, 4 P. M.—Spanish reply received at French Embassy, and is feared that it is not a straight-forward, but designed to open diplomatic controversy. Fighting will not cease until Spain says "yes," positively to our terms. Shafter says no serious danger to fresh troops at Santiago.

TAMPA, FLA., Aug. 5.—Negro troops attempted to rescue three army teamsters in jail. They were fired on and several wounded.

WAR TALK.

All drinking water at Chickamauga hereafter is to be boiled.

A figure figures that it costs $7,000 now to kill a man in battle.

Thirty-one languages and dialects are spoken in the Philippines.

Col. Colson's braves continue to desert. Three took French leave in a batch Saturday.

The Spanish figure that it will cost 50,000,000 pesetas to return her soldiers from the West Indies.

A dispatch to the Louisville Times says that Lt. Mike Salter, fired for incompetency, was granted a 20-day furlough.

A dispatch says that the Second Kentucky Regiment, at Chickamauga will be given a practice march, and may come home.

The Maria Teresa, of Cervara's sunken fleet, has been floated and found in fair condition, being able to start to Norfolk under her own steam.

Henry Johnson, a member of Col. Colson's regiment, was arrested at Lexington and taken to Perry county to answer an indictment for murder there.

While it requires both bodies of Congress to declare war acting concurrently with the president, it requires only the president and the Senate to conclude peace.

The Kentucky Monument at Chickamauga will be unveiled with appropriate ceremonies about Sept. 30, and the railroads will give a rate thereto of a cent a cent a mile.

Capt. Clark, of the Oregon, has been pronounced unfit for duty by the medical board of survey, and given a six-month's leave of absence. Capt. A. S. Barker, of the Newark, will succeed him.

Col. Castleman and the remnant of the First Kentucky are still at Newport News. Col. Castleman is impatient at the delay, but the department promises to send him on the first available transport.

The Government has bought 253 boats since the beginning of the war and has paid over $9,000,000 for them. The smallest are launches run by naphtha or electric engines, while the largest are transports of 8,000 tons.

The Spanish prisoners at Santiago are dying at the rate of 12 a day. Active preparations for the removal of the American troops are now being made at Santiago. Six transports now unloading will return with troops.

It is feared the whole of Shafter's army can not be embarked before September 1. He reports 431 new cases of fever in his army on Saturday, and 477 returned to duty. There are now 3,681 on the hospital list, of whom 2,618 have fever. He reports for two days 10 deaths, seven being from various forms of fever.

Gen. Miles' army is moving forward in three columns. The town of Gayama was taken by Hains' brigade, after a skirmish in which three Americans were wounded, but none seriously. After the town was taken the Spaniards attacked again but were routed, after a two hours' engagement with the Fourth Ohio Infantry.

According to a close personal friend of President McKinley the president expects the permanent possession of Manila and the island of Luzon by the United States, to be one of the fruits of the war. He is said, on similar authority, to expect the Cuban question to resolve itself into a protectorate, with a view to ultimate annexation.

Col. San Martin, who was in command of the Spanish garrison at Ponce, is said in a dispatch to Madrid to have been court-martialed and shot for abandoning the place to the Americans without resistance. Lieut. Col. Pulz, the second in command, committed suicide. A Madrid dispatch says the Minister of War denies that San Martin has been shot.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The Lincoln County Teachers met in annual session yesterday at 10 o'clock and Supt. Garland Singleton made a short speech outlining the work. The welcoming address was delivered by Elder Joe Severance in a very earnest and eloquent way and was responded to by Mr. L. M. Lewis, no less eloquently. Instructor W. C. Grinstead, of Danville, followed in a timely address and urged each teacher to help make this the best institute ever held here. Mr. L. M. Lewis was chosen secretary and Miss Annie McKinney assistant. The following teachers then answered to their names:

THOSE of our Lincoln county citizens who want to see the Hustonville Fair, which commences tomorrow, a success, should not fail to lend their presence. A splendid show of stock is promised and as usual the West Enders will leave nothing undone that will add to the pleasure of their guests.

MANGLED BY THE CARS.—John Hansford, better known as "Cap," son of Robert Hansford, of this place, was mangled to death by a Southern train at Harrodsburg as he lay asleep on the track. His remains were brought here and interred yesterday. They were almost beyond recognition.

CAUGHT.—Some three weeks ago Horace Brown, colored, escaped from the asylum at Lexington and came to his home near Turnersville. He seemed all right when he first arrived but soon got badly out of shape again. His wife notified the authorities at the asylum and Guard T. T. Martin came over Saturday and took him back.

SUCCESSFUL OPERATION.—Dr. W. C. Eubanks, of Paducah, tells us of a severe, though successful operation, performed by him and other surgeons on his sister-in-law, Mrs. J. M. Eubanks, of Mt. Salem. She was taken to Louisville to undergo it and is now doing well. A 50 pound fibrous ovarian tumor was removed and as she is very fleshy the operation was the more difficult.

THE Black INTERIOR JOURNALS and the Danville Athletics will cross bats on the Centre College grounds this afternoon, 9th. After the game a cake walk will be given at the U. B. F. Hall.

JUDGE CARSON indicted Solon Craig of color, yesterday $14 for whipping Bet Salter and Bet Robinson, two sable damsels, for telling his wife that they saw him hugging another woman, a pretty good cause for such action.

THE requests for tickets to the execution of George Stephenson on the 15th has run up into the hundreds and Sheriff Sam M. Owens has been compelled to refuse a great many. It does not seem to be generally known that only 50 persons are legally permitted to witness a hanging.

STILL ON TRIAL.—Ed Wilkinson who was at Liberty Sunday, tells us that the damage suit of John J. Moore against the Danville and Crab Orchard pike, moved from Boyle by a change of venue, was begun Friday but will not be completed before to-day or tomorrow.

SANGUINE.—Hon. George G. Gilbert was seen by one I. J. reporter as he was returning from Adams' picnic in Rockcastle county, where he spoke Saturday. He was in fine spirits and said he was sanguine of democratic success this Fall. He hopes that the grey gelding will be his opponent.

SHOT BY A GUARD.—Louis Rector, from Laurel county, who was here for safe-keeping several months, was shot by Guard Abe Gun as he was trying to scale the wall of the Frankfort penitentiary. He is serving a term for horse-stealing. The wound received is a dangerous one and may cost him his life.

RESIGNED.—Having determined to go to Paris, Texas, with his family and open a dairy, Mr. J. E. Carson, who has made a most earnest and careful chairman of the democratic committee, resigned yesterday at the meeting of the committee. The resignation was accepted and Mr. S. M. Owens recommended for appointment in his stead.

SOCIALISM.—An invitation is posted at the court-house to the public to attend an address at Ottenheim, Aug. 13, at 4 P. M., on "Socialism," by Mr. P. Gilley, of Louisville. The notice is signed by "The Committee" and urges the people to attend and hear the remedy for our numerous social evils. If the speech is to advocate socialism, it were better left unspoken in this section.

ON a Cincinnati Southern train Friday, accompanied by another soldier, was Jesse Holmes returning to his home at Frankfort from Chickamauga, sick apparently unto death with typhoid fever. His temperature was 104 and his parched lips were cracked open, but the hope of reaching home and mother seemed to buoy him up and he stood the trip well. He is a private in one of the Kentucky regiments and a very handsome young fellow.

THE first man who participated in the battle at Santiago, to stop in Stanford, was Wm. Wilson, son of A. J. Wilson, of Wallaceeton, Madison county. He belongs to the 6th Infantry, the regiment which did such valiant service there and was in the thickest of the fight for two days, firing in that time 200 rounds from a Krag-Jorgenson rifle. He was hit three times by Spanish Mauser balls, one skimming along his head, another going through his clothes on the side and another passing through his haversack. The terrible conditions gave him the typhoid fever and he was sent to Fort McPherson, Ga., as soon as possible, where he recovered after losing 30 or more pounds of flesh. His description of the country, the fortifications, the barbed wire obstructions and the battle interested a large crowd all the time he was here. He has been in the regular army for two years, but he thinks he has enough now and will ask to quit.

ROUT.—At 5 P. M. Sunday, Mrs. J. H. Rout, after several weeks' illness, died at her home here, aged 64. Her maiden name was Miss Lizzie Barbee, and she was a niece of Mr. I. P. Fisher, of Danville, who raised her. She was Mr. Rout's second wife and bore him two children, Mrs. Mary Elia Hewitt and J. E. Rout, who were with her in her last hours. She was a member of the Presbyterian church for years, and death found her ready and resigned to go. She talked calmly of her approaching dissolution and of her willingness to submit to her Master's will. At 3 o'clock yesterday in the presence of a large crowd of friends, Rev. J. B. Crouch, of the Baptist church, preached an appropriate funeral service at her home and then the remains were interred in Buffalo Cemetery. Much sympathy is felt for the husband and children in their loss of a good wife and doting mother.

LOST, on the street, the minute book of the Ladies' Christian Aid Society. Please return to Mrs. C. A. Cox.

College Home, Crab Orchard, with Dr. J. S. Stapp principal, will open Sept. 5. Read notice in this issue.

DEAD.—As we go to press a dispatch comes that Mr. I. N. Vaughan, father of Frank Vaughan, who is visiting his uncle, the Waltons, died suddenly in Richmond, Va., last evening.

IN the county court yesterday, J. P. Riffe qualified as administrator of G. C. Jenkins, and M. F. North, T. J. Robinson and J. W. Powell were appointed to appraise his estate. George R. Vaughn's will was admitted to probate and Isham Vaughn qualified as executor. J. C. Lynn qualified as administrator of N. T. Douglas, and D. W. Caldwell as administrator of H. W. Caldwell.

CLOSING.—The city council at its regular meeting agreed to give the Water, Light & Ice Co. $2,900 for the ensuing year, with the same provisions as now, the change to burning the lights all night requiring more expenditure than the company wanted to incur. The amount is $200 less than at present, but the company gets the benefit of the two plugs at the court-house and jail. City Attorney W. E. Varnon says that all the town's floating indebtedness will be paid this year and that next year taxes can be easily reduced to 50 cents on the $100.

J. W. Glass, of Bryantsville, while in Pulaski, came across a ewe that was half sheep and half deer, the animal's head, face and front legs being exactly like a deer, while the body, tail, wool, etc., resembled that of a sheep.—Jessamine Journal.

The roadster rings at the Hustonville fair promises to be fine. W. W. Goddard's Red Leaf, J. K. Baughman's Naboth, M. S. Baughman's Ogdensburg and many other trotters with records 'way down yonder, will contest.

John Steele Carpenter's Loxel, which made a big season at Nashville, was sent home sick and has since been in bad shape with pneumonia. Mr. Carpenter tells us that he has stayed with his horse night and day giving him medicine every three hours.

COURT DAY.—A good crowd attended court yesterday but the day was a drag in every way. Some 50 cattle were on the market and probably half changed hands. Owners held for 5c for best young steers but 44 to 45c were the best prices brought. Some heifers sold at 34 to 35c, and butcher stuff at 24 to 34c. The mule trade was dull.

THE FORM OF HOLY SCRIPTURE.

REV. GEO. O. BARNES' LEGACY TO THE GENERATION PRESENT AND TO COME.

(THIRD INSTALLMENT.)
We have, then, advanced to this point: we deny no fact of all that are advanced by the most vicious adverse criticism. We do not defend wrong in any shape, even though it were possible for God to do it, which it is not. A thing is not right, because God does it, any further than God does it because it is right. Everlasting right stands back of every action of the Omnipotent. Indeed we can not think of any act of the good God, without this prior thought, to build that thought upon. This may seem metaphysical, but it is not. It is axiomatic.

Returning then, we only deny unscriptural deductions from admitted facts. We brush aside all human theories that dishonor God, or sap the foundations of a living faith, come in what guise of orthodoxy or prescription, they may; and with reverent step lift the curtain that admits us to the "Holy of Holies," where the Godhead dwells, standing with uncovered heads, and unshod feet, listen to the sacred oracles, that, alone, can explain the mysteries of life.

"CUR DEUS HOMO?" is the question the school-men have attempted in vain to answer, simply, because they made the fatal admission, to begin with, that a good God can "do evil, that good may come." Sift all their theories to the bottom, this is the dreadful residuum. Anselm's answer to the question has shaped the current theology of all the sects for 800 years, and it is based upon as black a lie, as the "Father of lies" ever deluded a good man with. It charges God with the death of His Son—the crime of all crimes—in order to satisfy His own sense of justice. A frightful wrong committed—the "just dying for the unjust—to make the right appear right." It is difficult to think or speak patiently of this monstrous slander, given currency for ages, without serious protest, on the character of the Blessed God. It matters not that millions have been educated to believe it. Millions do not sanctify error. And let us always remember that millions only mean one, when their opinions are reduced to the last analysis. Men follow leaders, as sheep a "bell-wether," and as blindly, Mohammedanism, Buddhism, Confucianism, Calvinism, Wesleyism, Lutherism, Campbellism, all resolve themselves, severally, into the dogmatic opinion of one man. When this is clearly seen, as indisputable, it robs the whole subject of the imposing element of preponderant numbers. As a freeman in Christ, I have full liberty to challenge the views of one man, however great his following.

Anselmism, therefore, which, with its stupendous following of eight centuries, can easily be traced to an Italian monk, of the "Dark Ages," bred under the shadow of a false system—loses its title to respect, from its vast concourse of advocates; and if its founder's system can be shown to bring dishonor upon God, he shudders stands out, on History's page, as another "blind leader of the blind," heading for the "ditch," and an inevitable fall into it, with his deluded followers.

Let no one, therefore, be afraid to investigate or believe, because the "broad road" of current opinion is crowded with passengers; for "Wisdom shows a narrower path,
With here and there a traveller,"
And Truth ever has for its following,
"A little flock."

The answer here given to "CUR DEUS HOMO?" may leave us a God whom we pity. That is bad enough. But we will not, at least, despise Him as sceptics, boldly, now do; and as we, who believe on Him, have all that we can possibly do, to keep ourselves from indulging in contempt, born of our "better Nature," whenever we set ourselves to impart and unbiassed thought, along the line of current theory.

Let us go back to the Garden of Eden, and the beginning of the sad history when "sin entered into the world and death by sin." The crowning act of positive disobedience, in eating the "forbidden fruit" has been performed by both our first parents, and now, by their own free wills, they have put themselves into the hands of the enemy of God and man.

Their act was an act of unfettered free will, which creates the frightful difficulty in the way of their deliverance. Had "that old serpent, the Devil, and Satan" done anything but tempt them; had he exerted a pennyweight of force to drag them into his "Kingdom of darkness," the task of freeing them had been an easy one. God is "stronger" than the devil, as Scripture declares; and He could, at once, have put forth His countervailing strength, in a triumphant recovery of His hopeless creatures. But the free will lapse of Adam and Eve, rendered Omnipotence helpless to deliver, by the mere putting forth of power. Even now, when we stand on the ground of grace, with all its precious promises sounding in our ears, how helpless it is to save the sinner who will not believe, and what is belief but the surrender of the free will of man? The weakness of a child, can battle the might of God, till that surrender is made. Fourteen hundred millions of human free wills prop-

the Devil on his usurped throne, to-day; and keep our God from His right to rule the earth in joy and peace. When even a "working majority" of these free wills come over to the Lord's side, the Millennium will be here; and when all yield, heaven will come to earth, and His "will be done on that earth, as it is in heaven."

Returning to Eden—what is now to be done? The sentence of death has gone forth. Satan deluded but to stay. He is "a murderer from the beginning," and will not now forego his hateful purpose to destroy his victims. The "Lord-God" had warned His creatures that speedy death would result from eating the poisoned fruit of the fatal tree that Satan had planted "in the midst of the garden." It was no holy infliction of God's justice, but a warning of the Devil's cruelty that breathed in that solemn sentence: "In the day thou eatest thereof, thou shalt surely die." And yet they did not die. That is clear, from the narrative. Something died in their stead, as all Scripture declares; but they did not die. Evidently, there was an interposition that saved them. What was it?

Now, my reader, try and take in the situation. Satan is triumphant, and with a right to kill his cowering victims, who have, too late, discovered the frightful mistake they have made. A pitying God looks upon the scene, intent on rescue, but helpless, by mere power, to save. It is a case for diplomacy. It is wisdom, not force, that now comes to the front. And we are compelled, knowing what we do of the results of the tragic interview; knowing, as we do, that cavalry begins in Gen. III. with a destroyed serpent and a "bruised heel;" and Paradise is regained in the promise of what the "Seed of the Woman" should do: we are compelled, I urgently insist, to fill in the missing links in the chain of the skeleton record of Gen. III: always promising, that it must be an entry in accordance with the analogy of Scripture, and, in nothing, a violation of the Truth.

This, then, we are forced to admit, by the proprieties of the narrative, that the overture of deliverance for Adam and Eve must come from the "Lord-God," if they are to be rescued, at all. Satan is master of the situation, now, much as we dislike to think it. But facts are facts; and this is the awful one, that the Lord of Heaven and earth must sue for terms from the Devil, if He carries out His plan to deliver man. It is the one great tragedy of sacred History. Gethsemane and Golgotha are mere consequences. Here is the fountain head of all that follows, terrible as it is to write it, or even think it. Satan has God in his accursed power. The Lord of Glory must submit to a malignant Devil, or forego His plan to "save us sinners."

That one opportunity—our Adversary made the most of. That one dreadful mishap explains all that has since gone wrong, and as nothing else can possibly explain it.

About one month ago my child, which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief, we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about 10 days and was having about 25 operations of the bowels every 12 hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Boggs, Stumpton, Gilmer Co., W. Va.
